

The flare is metered. Calculations for the total Mcf flared = end meter volume – the begin meter volume.

Gas Composition has been entered into the Question Portion of this application.