

The heat is currently out at the Limestone comfort station. Hot water is available. The Men and Women sides will be locked at night for heat retention. Individual use rooms will remain available. Another comfort station without showers is available in the day use area. Apologies for the inconvenience